Foreword

So far as I know, there is no book which is distinctively a phrase book. Because of this fact, I have for years been collecting phrases from all sources. Whenever and wherever I have found in any volume, magazine, newspaper, or during conversation, a distinctive phrase I have made a note of it.

This volume is the result of an endeavor to classify these phrases so that the reader may secure a synonymous phrase as, in a book of synonyms, he secures a synonymous word.

It would be difficult for me to give credit for every phrase found in this book. In fact, it would be impossible to determine who are the authors of the larger number of our English phrases. I have, however, found in certain books a number of phrases so distinctive and characteristic that it is only proper to give due credit to the authors.

The novels of Dumas have supplied a great number of phrases for conversation, and I have found good material also in the correspondence of Mrs. Hannah More.

Foreword

Many general phrases have been derived from the writings of Thackeray, and the Essays of Samuel McCord Crothers.

For sermonic phrases I have found the writings of the Rev. Thomas Guthrie, D.D., and the Rev. J. H. Jowett, D.D., particularly helpful.

Men who have ability to make new phrases may be pleased to have at hand a book of this kind.

The clergyman who begins his every observation with "It seems to me" and continues "Along that line," will find here a variety of prefatory and introductory phrases.

Teachers who make a habit of adding new words and new phrases to their speech will doubtless find good browsing here.

There is perhaps no more difficult letter to write than one of condolence. A number of phrases are given under this designation, in order to assist in this most difficult and yet most blessed task.

Since we talk in phrases as well as in words, every home needs a phrase book as well as a dictionary.

I wish to make grateful acknowledgment to James Baldwin, author of The Book Lover, and to Miss Isobel Stevenson, of the New York City Public Library, for valuable suggestions concerning the arrangement of the book, and to Prof. Charles Knapp, of Barnard College, New York City, for assistance concerning the Foreign Phrases.

Using the Phrases

USING THE PHRASES

The entire volume should be perused for phrases which appeal to one's taste. These should be marked and memorized, and it will be noticed that they will spring spontaneously to the lips or pen.

A suggestion for a determined effort to use the phrases may be found in R. L. Stevenson's practice of inventing a conversation. He says in his Vailima Letters, vol. i., p. 105:

"Though I write so little, I pass all my hours of field-work in continual converse and imaginary correspondence. I scarce pull up a weed, but I invent a sentence on the matter to yourself; it does not get written; but the intent is there, and for me (in some sort) the companionship. To-day, for instance, we had a great talk. I was toiling, the sweat dripping from my nose, in the hot fit after a squall of rain: methought you asked me—frankly, was I happy. Happy (said I); I was only happy once; that was at Hyères."

CRITICAL OF PERSONS

He is a rather crabbed specimen of humanity
He gives me qualms
He is insufferably tiresome

Critical of Persons

I would as soon take Beelzebub himself into my plans

I can nowise explain what sort of whim, prank, act thus

Unhappily one is so fettered by

What utter bosh it all is for him to

He is a selfish, graceless, thankless person

He is insufferably mean

He is an odious old reprobate

He makes such idiotic excuses

His appearance is peculiarly forbidding

He is in constant danger of becoming mean and sordid

We are not all of that ilk

The suspicion arises in at least some minds, that the reprehensible art of lying has several practitioners in this country

Men who scold and whine, and prophesy ill

He is not able to get the right perspective

We are quite reluctant to follow his lead

He has no ground of complaint

He will have about his ears a unanimous chorus of derision and bitterness

He presented a series of lame apologies

He is in no small degree responsible for

Conversation

He is exceedingly dull
He cuts a sorry figure
His manner lacks sincerity without which no one can be truly agreeable
He is the prey of every passing circumstance
He is positively without a spark of humor
He is ponderously dull
He lapsed into arrant triviality
He emphasizes the defects
He has a great propensity for running into debt
He fails to see the need of making plentiful provision
His message might have been more fitly worded
He has no sense of the fitness of things More foolish words were never spoken in reply to a serious argument
His conclusions are hopelessly detached from his premises
He is quite incapable of generous sentiments
The real difficulty against which he has butted head down is
I am in a critical spirit
The theory has gone into bankruptcy
It is cheap and ignorant talk
He is stupidly over-confident I asked him how he could vindicate such an enormity
He is a derelict of mankind

Critical of Persons

He is an acrimonious critic
He has the baneful habit of
He is a mere bungler
He has a desert in his mind

 what was sordid
He is over-quick in reproof

 pineness and imbecility

 lation

His thoughts are always vague and ill-defined
He is a lazy, lolling sort of human
That was a sensible admonition directed against his silly talk
He is charged with exaggeration if not willful distortion of the facts of the case

DISSENT

I protested in vain
It would simply freeze my blood if I was awakened for the first time to its full significance when
In which case I should remonstrate
It is enough to turn one's brain
That's the very thing I complain of What hurt my feelings was that nothing I could say would do any good
It is monstrous
It is shocking
The very heart and soul of justice have been plucked out of her unresisting carcass
It is a stupid thing to do, to my mind, and I don't see the point
It is preposterous

Dissent

It's absurd
I remonstrated at the time
It is certainly not a very pleasant thing to think that I cannot refrain from expressing my regret that I am distracted with the cares of
It is really heartbreaking to see
It is very annoying to me
I can scarcely credit it
The uncertainty is irritating
It puts me in a decidedly awkward position
He gave no very gracious consent
I fervently hope not Decidedly not
Figures don't lie, but often they do not speak plain enough to be understood at the first hearing
You can ill afford to
I loathe it
I was exceedingly mortified that He might have sat for a picture of insensibility
I assure you such is not the case
It is scarcely worth raising our heads to look at
I was nervous at the thought of it
There is danger of an embarrassing rupture He was not slow in expressing his disgust at the conduct of

Conversation

I care not a fig who knows it
It is a sore thing for me to have to do this Heaven forbid that such a thing should come to pass
I know precisely what it signifies
I think it would be quite inadvisable to do so
He could out-slang the boldest bargeman
The pitiful thing about it all is
It is a manifest absurdity
It is in a bad way
The statement is the merest nonsense
The latest and most absurd theory is I hate, abhor, sicken at it
I want most emphatically to disclaim any intention of

INQUIRY

What course shall you take to get your money?
What do you know of his history?
Where shall I be likely to find him?
What has he there?
Have you any news?
What kind of man is he?
When do you leave?
Where do you intend to settle?
Have you had luncheon?
May I have an apple?

Prefatory

Will you obey me?
Have you had any tidings of your brother?
What did you observe?
In what part of the country do you live?
Where are you staying?
We spent an agreeable evening together.

PREFATORY

As luck would have it, I
To be candid, I
It seems a positive calamity that Do you seriously imagine that No one could be so rash as to assert that I am satisfied that I strongly suspect that I fancy that
Further than this Paradoxical as it may seem
I dare say that
It is with great pleasure that
It would ill become me to remark that
For instance
The redeeming feature of it all is Quite by chance, I
I have been wondering whether
In all probability we
It is not likely that

Conversation

Luckily I

It is a singular coincidence that

I took particular pains to notice whether

It is with problems such as these that

How very fortunate it is that

It is a particular piece of good fortune that he

As a matter of fact

None the less, I

It can be admitted too that Certain it is that

In some quarters it is believed that

If that be the case, I

I confess I look with some alarm at

I have the great good fortune to have heard
that

I realize afresh that

The art of arts is

I flatter myself that

It is from the heart that I can request that I am perfectly convinced that

The full gravity of the situation is seen in the fact that

Regardless of any thing I said

I am painfully conscious that I wasn't by any means sure I

It dawned upon him gradually that

It is seldom that

Prefatory

We may be quite sure that I have repeatedly said that It cannot but carry with it instant conviction
that

By some mischance, I
Prior to this, we
I was greatly elated to find that I am heartily glad that I know the nicest little secret
I had a happy thought to-day
I cannot but realize that It is scarcely conceivable that Frankly, I
It is intellectually unthinkable that
On the other hand
I appreciate most deeply the
I am devoutly thankful for
At all events
None the less Hitherto
Furthermore
Further than that Nevertheless
Notwithstanding
In the meantime Frequently the
In all candor
I rather apprehend that

Conversation

I have sometimes thought that It must be owned too, that I scarcely feel as if I
I rather imagine that
To this day I hardly know whether I
A very striking proof of the fact is I will hazard the observation that
On the other hand
You have made me curious. Tell me of it
I have news for you
May I give you an instance
It is quite indifferent to me whether I
He used frequently to observe that What is the explanation? It is simplicity itself
Now that I am a little seasoned I I have heard him often lament that
You may guess what luck
I regret extremely that It would have been quite out of the question for us to
Recently I came across this I was about to inquire what you thought of I have the deepest veneration for He has conceived the happy idea of I suppose the inference we are expected to draw is
I am confident of one thing that

Prefatory

My principal motive for acting thus was I am fully aware that I perceive, moreover, that
It is surely true that I marvel that I sometimes fancy that I humbly conceive that I apprehend that
Of course, I am perfectly aware that I presume that
There are pretty certain indications that It often amazes me that It seems hardly probable that I affirm that I have the consolation to hope that It is still permitted us to hope that It would be futile to deny that It is reasonable to assume that There is no prospect that
In these circumstances it
I suppose that I warrant that I confess I am not indifferent to I shrink instinctively from I confess a less and less relish for I am impatient and querulous under
It is a sort of presumption to expect that I cannot imagine to myself

Conversation

I have a kindly yearning toward I heartily approve of
I do not advert to
I have long believed that
It has long been the fashion to
I have been falsely assuring everybody that One cannot help noticing that There are plenty of evidences that The difference, I take it, is this
The fact of the matter is
If I rightly remember
It is a just cause for praise that It was a happy circumstance for me that I wish with all my heart that I am grateful to find that I devoutly wish it may prove to be that he
It is not to be supposed that My attention has been directed to the
I have a mental reservation with regard to A very affecting circumstance happened yesterday
I have a story worth telling
I had the rare distinction of I had a very civil note from
If I may hazard a conjecture, I should rather think
It was unusual for me to
He seems to be obsessed with the idea that

Prefatory

There is but a thousand-to-one chance that It is an open secret that I have an impression that I informed you wrongly when I said that If I mistake not, I believe that If I may use the expression I think that Quite regardless of my remark, you
I had the inexpressible comfort of knowing
that
He made a touching proof of his regard by
I flatter myself that
Is it not a great mercy to have such a helper?
Again and again, I
Inadvertently, I
I felt like uttering a mild disclaimer when I have little predilection for I had the rare satisfaction of I was strangely moved when I heard that There is a certain distinctive advantage in I was amazed to find that
In my poor judgment, I
I hold in all seriousness that
Has the tide of victory set in your favor?
By what magic have you found out the secrets of
We have plumed ourselves upon our ability to

Conversation

RESPONSE

It is good of you to say so
He is to be most warmly felicitated
I have fallen into splendid hands
How nicely you put that How lovely of you
Those friends of yours are delightful people
He is able to extract comfort and pleasure out of hard experiences
You decide rightly
I was received with the utmost kindness
I am quite delighted
Permit me to compliment you How consoling you are
I was never more entertained
You got out of that rather neatly
It is like talking the art of war before Hannibal
I quite agree with you
Very luckily for me
You have not guessed rightly
With all my heart
We acquiesce
That tends to confirm my opinion
I will make ample allowance
Don't give way to such a fancy
How unfortunate
I am glad to hear such good tidings of

Response

I am a sort of amateur Father-Confessor, you know

I am not as strong as I fancied myself
A very extraordinary measure I confess
A day that I still recall with pleasure
We haggled about the price

I fear I cannot go
Surely none of us would relish such treatment
He deems it well worth while I can make a guess as to the probable results
I think it is about time to tincture our ideals with common sense

It is most refreshing
You have rightly judged
She was strangely diffident
He responded so good-naturedly
He should be highly thankful
Our effort was futile enough

Very rarely
Quite likely Unquestionably
We have ample time
Quite frequently

It is all the most ardent supporter could wish Fortunately there is still a more excellent way
I'm afraid he started the day in a contradictory mood

He is never very closely confined to the facts

Conversation

It is a sore trial to his temper
The paper gives a beggarly account of the affair
I think I can do it without danger of repro-bation
I am trying to help him compose his difficulties
He did it in all good faith
I had the simple satisfaction of knowing that He is suffering from a confusion of ideas
The exceptions are so few as to be negligible
It is not expedient for us to do otherwise
It was too sore a subject for levity
I reciprocate your good wishes
The matter was brought to a satisfactory termination
It was real stupid of me
It completely surpasses my comprehension
It caused me a thousand apprehensions
The odds seem overwhelmingly against them
I think she is a wee bit jealous
He is a miserable victim of anxiety
I am afraid he will be taught by many a sore and scalding lesson
It is decidedly humorous
I am open to suggestion
It would neither remove nor confirm my doubts
I hate all ostentation
Upon subsequent occasions he was very affable

Response

Heaven knows how or when
If they could be convinced it would be a godsend
Much to our profit and delight
It is the only possible course
Not that I know
I do not wish for any
It is a matter of no importance
He is sick but not in danger
He is in feeble health
We suffered great hardships
Had I known it, I
I do not remember
I will summon him
I should have liked very much to have seen him
I have seen him
I admit you've provocation for it
I cannot recollect
I have finished
I assure you he was very much astonished
Thank you for your cheering words on

I supposed it to be me whom you meant

I do not know that I can. I wish I were able to

You would do me such a service I could scarce repay

With pleasure

I am ardently wishing for it

I imagine it must have been he

I am not sure I rightly understand

I am happy to think so

Yes, I quite understand how it happened

Fortunately so

We were fortunate enough to find one

I wish it were true

I was taken aback for the moment

Receive my sincere congratulations

I am delighted to hear you say so

I am most grateful to you

Most assuredly

A lady, a friend of mine, told me
I have asked two or three ladies and several men
I expect two or three gentlemen
It has been a delightfully agreeable day
This is a fine morning
I have neither eaten nor drunk anything to-day
It looks as if it would rain
This is the largest of all I have seen
That kind of apples is best
We are likely to have a fine day

She will return presently

Ask me something easy
I am neutral
The deponent sayeth not
The problem is surely most perplexing
I think, perhaps, there might be a happy medium
It is surely a point of view novel enough to merit attention

Tactful Response

There seems no very great diversity in our sentiments

I often wish things were otherwise

I am not inclined to tinker with it

It seems that it is a case difficult either of proof or disproof

The question is surely a thorny and complex one

I am open to suggestion

What part of Ireland are you from?

Isn't that a sad state of affairs

I wish to act in consonance with the beliefs that I have so long adhered to

SERMON PHRASES—ARRAIGNMENT

The hollow shams and conventionalities of our day
No adequate sense of His holiness
Baser than a beast
No keen and poignant perception of sin
The lessening sense of sin
His own heart as cold as frost

Clergymen

Sad and sinful days
Our hearts hot with wrath and indignation against sin
Evil to its core
The devil's signet
Of decidedly earthly passions
All dried up in one's soul
Lust was kindled in his heart Base, mean, prudential, paying no tribute to the Divine excellence
The parching blight of sin
Beware of artful, designing persons
Sins come in groups, in battalions
Like the frosts of sin which blight the sweet blossoms of youth
And taste the tang of the bitter cup
The hundred and one enemies of our peace, comfort, and efficiency
The burning poison in his veins
There is nothing more likely to betray a man into absurdity than
It vexes, grieves, thwarts, repels, drives off the Spirit of God
Beware of the beginnings of sin
Over head and ears in debt and drink
The peril of riches
A coronet of shame
The secret beginnings of sin

Arraignment

By so doing, he is sowing the seed of a fatal infection

Trifling with great spiritual realities
Lest it might lead to things undesirable
The horror of a bottomless pit Habits which quietly sap the foundations of life

Words which will shock some dainty soul
A sickening devotion to the pursuit of wealth
The evils of unrighteousness in civic life
It seems to contradict the designs of Providence A narrowing effect on the conscience of those who have embraced it

Care lest one be inveigled into perdition
Words which ought to make us twinge
Words of worldly wisdom
A brewing storm of hostility
The world's hardest battlefields of sin and sorrow
In their hearts the feuds of ages
A wretched, dejected, sin-blasted soul
Carnality in the heart
The great enemy of mankind
The black enormity of sin
A miserable grudge in your heart
The spawn of the evil one
A heritage of hate
A dauntless worldling
From whose very touch one's delicacies shrink

Clergymen

The fires of a sensitive religious experience no longer glow
The grip of evil forces
All alarming, all hateful, all detestable
A gnawing sense of condemnation in the heart
Those who abuse God's great gift of speech
Some of these enormities put to blush heathenism itself
These are the new Dark Ages
No deeply seated opinions of right and wrong
A state of lazy indifference
Apparently destitute of ambition
Worthy neither of respect nor honor
Soft and easy days
Mean, petty, social prejudices
The temptation to fritter away life in interests that are small and mean Everlasting confusion
The enemy shall come in like a flood
The man that speaketh froward things
The resurrection of damnation
A rebellious house
God resisteth the proud
The works of darkness
Unstable as water
Spreading himself like a green bay-tree
The words of his mouth were smoother than butter but war was in his heart

Consecration

Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit?

CONDOLATORY

MY DEAR —,

We were exceedingly sorry to learn of your bereavement. There are many whom we have "loved and lost awhile." But God will take us into their goodly company some glad day. We unite in sending our sincere sympathy.

With warm regards,

MY DEAR —,

We are greatly afflicted by the melancholy intelligence which has reached us that — is no more with us. He carried the riches of God within himself, and was a royal-hearted man. He was greatly beloved by all of us. With a prayer for every blessing on yourself,

Affectionately, your friend,

MY DEAR FRIEND,

It is with great regret that we learn of the sad occurrence at your home. Please accept our united and sincere condolences.

With deepest sympathy,

Putnam's Minute-a-Day English

By

Edwin Hamlin Carr

Correct English is Necessary to Success in Life, Business, Professional, or Social.

Ambitious people therefore, must have, or must secure, a mastery of English. They must be able to avoid grammatical errors; they must know how to pronounce properly, and have pleasing articulation and enunciation; they must be able to spell correctly; and they must have an extensive vocabulary.

Hence this volume has been compiled for busy people who realize the importance of accuracy and an effective form of expression in their daily conduct with others.
